Cookie Policy

This cookie notice ("Cookie Notice") applies to SerdicaGrid services (internet sites and products, "Services"). It explains what these technologies are, why we use them and the duration of their use as well as your rights to control our use of them. For more information about the ways in which SerdicaGrid handles personal data, please refer to our SerdicaGrid Privacy Notice ("Privacy Notice").

What are cookies and similar techniques?

Cookies are small pieces of information (small files) stored within your browser or on your device. There are similar techniques as cookies such as Flash cookies, web beacons, small graphic files (pixels) and an additional HTML5 (local) storage in your browser. These techniques function in a similar manner as cookies. Where we refer to "cookies" in this Cookie Notice, we also mean similar techniques.

Cookie Parties

As SerdicaGrid, we place cookies when you visit our Services that are only readable for us ("1st Party Cookies"), as do the third parties ("3rd Party Cookies"). These cookies are only readable for the third party. Our list of 3rd Parties provides an overview which third parties we work together with and where you can find the privacy notices of each third party.

Cookie Types

Cookies that are essential for the functionality of our Services (also known as "Strictly necessary" cookies):

Since these cookies are essential, they are always active in our Services. We respect your preferences and in order to make your choices valuable and effective, we keep strictly necessary cookies out of types of cookies that we ask for your consent. We use these cookies for activities such as recognising you when you sign-in to use our Services so that you do not have to log in manually the next time you visit and ensuring that our SerdicaGrid Products are displayed properly on your screen.

Cookies that help to a better user experience (also known as "Functional" cookies):

For example, we use these cookies to remember information when you fill in forms or input fields on various pages and to keep track of your preferences such as language settings, location settings, etc.

Cookies that assist us to maintain advertising activities (also known as "Targeting cookies"):

These cookies ensure that it is possible for us to display personalized ads, to track which ads you have already seen and to track how many visitors click on an advertisement. Please note that you will still be shown advertisements even if these cookies are not used as we also display ads that do not use cookies.

For more information regarding the cookies used by advertising networks, we refer you to terms and conditions, cookie policies and privacy policies applicable to these platforms as can be found on our 3rd party list.

Cookies that allow us to gather information about the way visitors use our Services (also known as "Performance" cookies):

The information we gather from these cookies is used to generate site statistics. These statistics provide us with insights, such as how often our Services are visited, which parts or features are mostly viewed, how often our Services are interacted with. We continuously try to measure which Services of us are the most popular that attracts most visitors and users. This allows us to make the structure, navigation, and content as user-friendly as possible.
